

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

JUDITH GREENE is a criminal justice policy analyst and a founding partner in Justice Strategies. Over the past decade she has received a Soros Senior Justice Fellowship from the Open Society Institute, served as a research associate for the RAND Corporation, as a senior research fellow at the University of Minnesota Law School, and as director of the State-Centered Program for the Edna McConnell Clark Foundation. From 1985 to 1993 she was Director of Court Programs at the Vera Institute of Justice.

Ms. Greene's articles on criminal sentencing issues, police practices, and correctional policy have appeared in numerous publications, including The American Prospect, Corrections Today, Crime and Delinquency, Current Issues in Criminal Justice, The Federal Sentencing Reporter, The Index on Censorship, Judicature, The Justice Systems Journal, Overcrowded Times, Prison Legal News, The Rutgers Law Journal, and The Wake Forest Law Review.

KEVIN PRANIS is a researcher with more than a decade of experience as a justice educator and policy analyst. Between 2003 and 2006, Mr. Pranis was a partner in Justice Strategies, a nonprofit organization that provides research to advocates and policymakers in the fields of criminal justice and immigrant detention. Mr. Pranis has produced educational materials, training manuals, and reports and white papers on topics that include corporate accountability, municipal bond finance, prison privatization, and sentencing policy. Recent reports authored or co-authored by Mr. Pranis include: "Cost-Saving or Cost-Shifting: The Fiscal Impact of Prison Privatization in Arizona" (Private Corrections Institute, 2005); "Alabama Prison Crisis" (Justice Strategies, 2005); "Treatment Instead of Prisons: A Roadmap for Sentencing and Correctional Policy Reform in Wisconsin" (Justice Strategies, 2006); "Disparity by Design: How drug-free zone laws impact racial disparity - and fail to protect youth" (Justice Policy Institute, 2006); and "Hard Hit: The Growth in the Imprisonment of Women, 1977-2004" (Women's Prison Association, 2006).
