

Join a Discussion on

Virginia's Sentencing, Corrections & Criminal Justice Approach

Thursday, April 3, 2014 — 5 to 7 p.m.
Virginia Union University at the Richmond Police Academy
1202 W. Graham Road — Richmond, VA 23220

Free Event — Free Parking — Light Refreshments

Organizations featured on the moderated panel include:

Virginia Indigent Defense Commission Justice Policy Institute
Virginia Alliance Against Mass Incarceration

Panelists will address the latest research on Virginia's criminal justice system, highlight the effects of state laws on minorities, and answer technical questions about sentencing guidelines and enhancements

The convening will also unveil new findings from the Justice Policy Institute's report series on Virginia's justice system & spark discussion from community stakeholders

Co-hosted by

ACLU of Virginia Bridging the Gap in Virginia Center for Budget Priority
Faith Leaders Moving Forward Virginians for Alternatives to the Death Penalty
Muslim Chaplain Services of Virginia New Life Deliverance Tabernacle
National Organization of Black Law Enforcement (NOBLE) Virginia CURE
Offender Aid and Restoration Prisoners & Families for Equal Right & Justice
Resource Information Help for Disadvantaged The Advancement Project
Virginia Community Criminal Justice Association JustChildren
Virginia Alliance Against Mass Incarceration African American Family Initiative
African American Lecture Series Committee

Special Thanks to the Virginia Alliance to end Mass Incarceration and Virginia Union University Center for the Study of the Urban Child